

Eastern Clarion.

R. ADAMS, — Editor.

PAULDING, MISS.

Saturday Morning, Nov. 27, 1858.

Our Courthouse.—We would inform our friends that the law is in progress, and are making everyendeavor to secure the publication of the Decisions of the High Court of Errors and Appeals, from and after the first day of January, 1859.

H. A. Smith, Jackson, Miss.—Notice the change of name from James Smith, to that of H. A. Smith, in the advertisement of the Store Depot, Jackson, Miss. The establishment is kept up in all its former completeness, and persons needing anything in the line can be supplied with the very best articles, on the most reasonable terms.

Edgar Murrell, Jackson, Miss.—Dealer in Stoves, Castings, Tinware, Copper and Iron works, &c., publishes his card in the present number of the Clarion. He has a large supply of articles in his line, and is fully prepared to meet the wants of customers. The reader is referred to the advertisement.

Brock, McRae & Co., New Orleans.—The card of this firm will be found in the present number of the Clarion. Our Mississippi friends will need nothing more to commend it to their favor, than the discovery of the fact that Hon. MADISON McKEE, our present State Auditor, is one of the firm.

Congress-Seat or Jersey.—We have not seen a copy of the bill which was introduced by Mr. De Kiesa, Mr. McLellan, and passed through the House, but have obtained a copy of the bill of Justice of this country. We are informed, however, that the bill provides for submitting the question to a vote of the people of the county, in February next. We have not heard of its passage by the Senate, though it will probably do so.

The Niagara Emigrants.—The Niagara Emigrants, assembled in Mobile under the auspices of the Niagara Emigrant Company, and bound for Canada, were recently discovered to have been detained by the refusal of the Customs House Officers to furnish a clearance to the vessel on which they effected a passage to the United States, and three new Departments created: Platte, California, and Oregon. Two bills have been introduced in the House of Representatives, one to protect the rights of the Niagara Emigrants, and another to prohibit the importation of slaves into the United States.

Arrival of Captain Clegg.—We have received the paper, and intimates that his correspondent slightly mistakes in one thing. He thinks his editor will not go the full length of his rope," until a sheriff helps him to it.
